2013 SCIENTIFIC SESSION

February 8-9, 2013 • Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club • Durham, NC

This continuing medical education activity is sponsored by the American College of Physicians

2013 SCIENTIFIC SESSION

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION AND TARGET AUDIENCE

This meeting is designed for general internists, subspecialty internists, family physicians, fellows in subspecialty training, allied health practitioners, residents, and medical students interested in internal medicine. The purpose is to improve diagnosis and treatment skills and provide updates on new developments in the health care climate in North Carolina. This is the only forum for internal medicine physicians in the state to convene, confer with colleagues, and update knowledge and skills!

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

- Apply updated knowledge of glomerulonephritis, opioid management, diabetes, health policy and alcohol withdrawal to clinical practice.
- Improve clinical practice by incorporating major new developments in concussion in sports medicine, diabetes, opioid regulation, cardiology, and meaningful use of EHR.
- Understand recent advances in diabetes and cardiology.
- Understand political advocacy and reform.

ACCREDITATION

The American College of Physicians (ACP) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CREDIT

The American College of Physicians designates this educational activity for a maximum of 10.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE

The American College of Physicians adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and policies regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Commercial support for the program and faculty relationships within the industry will be disclosed at the activity. Speakers will also state when off-label or experimental drugs or devices are incorporated in their presentations.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

The NC,ACP is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call the NC,ACP at (919) 833-3836 no later than 10 business days before the date of the activity.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Program Chair Paul Roman Chelminski, MD, MPH, FACP has assembled an outstanding faculty who will address current topics of interest, and back by popular demand, internal medicine residents will participate in a fast-paced "Medical Jeopardy" competition. Other meeting features for your enjoyment include:

- The Associates Poster Competition;
- The Governor's Awards Dinner, at which this year's Laureate Award and Volunteerism Award winners will be recognized;
- The Associates' Cocktail Hour;
- Choice of six special interest group lunch roundtables;
- Chief resident presentations;
- The Chapter business meeting and Chapter Town Hall meeting;
- An exhibit area presenting products and services of interest to physicians.

Attire is business casual for the meeting and social events.

MEETING REGISTRATION

The registration fee for this meeting is $175 for ACP member physicians, $250 for non-member physicians, and $125-$150 for allied health professionals. Residents and medical students may attend free of charge. Registration fees include the two days of meeting sessions, the Friday evening reception, continental breakfast, lunch and breaks. You may register securely online at <https://www.123signup.com/event?id=srsjf>, or complete the form in this brochure and return it via fax or mail prior to Monday, January 14.
