2010 Annual Meeting

January 15-17, 2010
The Ritz-Carlton
Charlotte, NC

Jointly Sponsored by the North Carolina Dermatology Association and the North Carolina Medical Society

North Carolina Dermatology Association 2010 Annual Meeting

Activity Description

This meeting is designed for the dermatologic physician and will address issues of interest and concern to dermatologists today.

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this continuing medical education activity, participants should be able to:

- Identify unique dermatologic patient populations who present unique challenges to dermatologists in terms of resources, age and social environment, and assess how best to treat these patients
- Enumerate side effects of commonly prescribed medications in dermatology and devise techniques to evaluate and utilize information on these drugs to maximize efficacy and patient safety
- Examine the drug development process in dermatology
- Assess interdisciplinary approaches and practices for the treatment of skin disorders

Accreditation

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials and Standards of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the North Carolina Medical Society (NCMS) and the North Carolina Dermatology Association. The NCMS is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit

The North Carolina Dermatology Association's Annual Meeting is recognized by the American Academy of Dermatology for 11 hours of AAD Category 1 CME credit and may be used towards the American Academy of Dermatology's Continuing Medical Education Award. The AAD CME number for this meeting is 358-100.

The North Carolina Medical Society designates this educational activity for a maximum of 11 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)<sup>TM</sup>. Physicians should claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure

The North Carolina Medical Society adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and policies regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Commercial support for the program and faculty relationships within the industry will be disclosed at the activity. Speakers will also state when off-label or experimental drugs or devices are incorporated in their presentations.

Questions?

Please contact the NCDA office at (919) 833-3836 or (800) 722-1350, or nlowe@ncmedsoc.org.

Accommodations

The new Ritz-Carlton Charlotte is the first LEED® gold-certified hotel for the brand and the first hotel in the city to be LEED®-certified, meeting the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design requirements for sustainable and energy-efficient buildings. The hotel features a penthouse, bi-level Wellness Center and pool and two restaurants, and is situated in the heart of Uptown, at 201 East Trade Street. The NC Dermatology Association has set aside a block of rooms at the very special rate of $229 plus taxes; however, these rooms will not be held beyond December 15, so you are urged to make your reservation promptly. To reserve your room, call the Ritz-Carlton at (800) 241-3333 or (704) 547-2244, or go to www.ritzcarlton.com and enter Group Code ACAACAA.

Meeting Features

In addition to the outstanding faculty who will address current topics of interest, the Annual Meeting will feature an exhibit hall presenting products and services to help the dermatology practice. Both Friday and Saturday nights include receptions where you can reconnect with old colleagues and meet new ones. The attire is business casual for the meeting and social events.

Meeting Registration

The registration fees for this meeting are noted on the enclosed form. Fees include all meeting sessions, the Friday evening reception, the Saturday evening reception and entertainment, daily breaks and two continental breakfasts. You may register securely online at <https://www.123signup.com/event?id=jvfxr>, or complete the form in this brochure and return it via fax or mail prior to Monday, December 14. After December 14, registration fees will increase. Please note, $100 of the non-member registration fee may be applied toward the membership fee if you join the NCDA.

Deadline / Registration Cancellation

Refunds of registration fees will not be made after December 30, 2009. Refunds, less $25, will be made for cancellations received prior to that date.

Americans with Disabilities Act

The NCMS and the NCDA are fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and do not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call the NCDA office at (919) 833-3836 no later than ten business days before the date of the activity.
