2013 Annual Meeting

North Carolina Obstetrical & Gynecological Society
& NC Section of ACOG

April 19-21, 2013 - Grove Park Inn Resort & Spa - Asheville, NC

This activity is jointly sponsored by the American College of Obstetricians & Gynecologists
Activity Description

This educational activity is designed for practicing and academic obstetric and gynecological physicians, residents, mid-level providers and medical students. It will address common conditions and concerns related to women's health care.

Educational Objectives

Upon conclusion of this educational activity the participants will be able to:

- Assess advances in virology and immunology that influence cervical cancer screening.
- Identify appropriate candidates for medical and surgical interventions to prevent preterm birth.
- Incorporate minimally invasive surgical approaches into GYN practice.
- Assess different modalities for electro-surgery.
- Recognize appropriate actions when faced with malpractice claims or credentialing challenges.
- Discuss the impact of infection and hemorrhage on maternal mortality in the developing world.
- Utilize evidence-based strategies to assess women with complaints of urinary leakage.
- Compare traditional practice models for OBGs to those relying on hospitalists.

ACCME Accreditation

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 12 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

College Cognate Credit(s)

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this educational activity for a maximum of 12 Category 1 College Cognate Credits. The College has a reciprocity agreement with the AMA that allows AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ to be equivalent to College Cognate Credits.

Disclosure of Faculty and Industry Relationships

In accordance with College policy, all faculty and planning committee members have signed a conflict of interest statement in which they have disclosed any significant financial interests or other relationships with industry relative to topics they will disclose at this program. At the beginning of the program, faculty members are required to disclose any such information to participants. Such disclosure allows you to evaluate better the objectivity of the information presented in lectures. Please report on your evaluation form any undisclosed conflict of interest you perceive.

Americans With Disabilities Act

The NCOGS is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call Nancy Lowe at (919) 833-3836 no later than 10 business days before the date of the activity.

Featured Speaker

This year's presidential speaker is Paul Meis, MD, professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center. In 2009 Dr. Meis received the Public Health Staff Recognition Award, given by GlaxoSmithKline, in recognition of his work with the Davie and Yadkin County health departments to reduce infant mortality and serious illnesses in newborns. An obstetrician for over 40 years, Dr. Meis has published articles focusing on causes of low-birth-weight babies, and pioneered a study to test whether hormone injections could reduce pre-term births. Dr. Meis will speak on Saturday morning on "Progesterone and Prematurity: Past, Present and Future."

Resident/Fellow Activities

As is the tradition, resident paper presentations are scheduled for Saturday morning. Back by popular demand, a special lunch program for residents will take place following Saturday's scientific session. There is no fee for this luncheon, but pre-registration is required.
Meeting Features
Meet new colleagues and renew acquaintances on Friday at the welcome reception in the exhibit hall, featuring products and services of interest to practicing obstetricians and gynecologists. A special breakfast for spouses and guests will be offered Saturday morning; pre-registration is required. The business meeting will take place Saturday morning, and Saturday afternoon is free. A golf outing is planned for Saturday at the Golf Course at the Grove Park Inn; fee includes boxed lunch and prizes. Tennis is also planned, in a round-robin format. The Saturday dinner will feature musical entertainment by the Java Band, a great dance music band covering Jazz, Beach, 70's & 80's, Motown, and Top 40. Java has performed throughout the US with artists including Earth, Wind & Fire, Chicago, Michael McDonald, Wild Cherry, and many more! Cocktail attire is suggested for the Saturday dinner. Attire for the meeting and other functions is business casual.
