2011 ANNUAL MEETING

APRIL 15-17, 2011

GROVE PARK INN RESORT & SPA • ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

THIS ACTIVITY IS JOINTLY SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF OBSTETRICIANS & GYNECOLOGISTS
2011 ANNUAL MEETING

Meeting Description and Objectives
This meeting is designed for practicing and academic obstetric and gynecological physicians, residents and medical students, and will address common conditions and concerns related to women’s health care.

At the conclusion of this educational activity participants should be able to:

- Improve skills to make effective scientific presentations;
- Assess the advantages and disadvantages of robotic gynecologic surgery;
- Discuss the prevalence of female sexual dysfunction and its comorbidities;
- Enumerate strategies to reduce the incidence of cancer in NC;
- Incorporate changes in the NC Medicaid perinatal program into their practice;
- Effectively counsel a patient about fertility preserving strategies prior to cancer treatment;
- Identify the tools needed to incorporate vaccines into their daily practice;
- Assess the advantages and disadvantages of single incision endoscopic surgery;
- Update their knowledge on the epidemiology and treatment of hypertensive disorders in pregnancy;
- Review the molecular biology, virology, and immunology of cervical dysplasia.

ACCME Accreditation
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this educational activity for a maximum of 11 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

College Cognate Credit(s)
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this educational activity for a maximum of 11 Category 1 College Cognate Credits. The College has a reciprocity agreement with the AMA that allows AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ to be equivalent to College Cognate Credits.

Disclosure of Faculty and Industry Relationships
In accordance with College policy, all faculty and planning committee members have signed a conflict of interest statement in which they have disclosed any significant financial interests or other relationships with industry relative to topics they will discuss at this program. At the beginning of the program, faculty members are required to disclose any such information to participants. Such disclosure allows you to evaluate better the objectivity of the information presented in lectures. Please report on your evaluation form any undisclosed conflict of interest you perceive. Thank you!

Americans With Disabilities Act
The NCOGS is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate based on any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans With Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call Nancy Lowe at (919) 833-3836 no later than ten business days before the date of the activity.

Location/Accommodations
The 2011 Annual Meeting will be held at the four-diamond rated, historic, family-friendly Grove Park Inn Resort and Spa in Asheville, NC. The resort features golf, tennis, a world-class spa (call ahead for reservations), indoor and outdoor pools, and fitness center.

Room rates for the meeting are $226 single or double occupancy, plus taxes. The cut-off date for reservations is March 14. Please call the Grove Park Inn directly at (800) 438-5800 to reserve your accommodations; refer to Group Code 068q111.

Grove Park Inn Kids’ Club
The Grove Park Inn provides full-day, half-day, and evening children’s programs, as well as baby-sitting services. Call (800) 438-5800 ext. 1046 for prices and details and to register your children in advance.

Attire
Dress for the meeting is business casual. Cocktail attire is suggested for the Saturday evening banquet.

Meeting Registration
Registration fees are noted on the attached form. These fees include all meeting sessions, the Friday evening reception for the participant and guests, the Saturday evening reception and dinner for the participant, daily breaks and two continental breakfasts. The discounted fee for guests for the Saturday evening reception and dinner is $65 per adult. There is no fee for the Saturday morning spouse/guest continental breakfast. There is no registration fee for residents or students; however, the $65 banquet fee will apply. Early-bird rates end April 1. You may register securely online at www.123signup.com/event?id=vtyzv, or complete the form in this brochure and return it with payment prior to April 1. Refunds will not be made for cancellations received after April 7. Refunds, less $25, will be made for cancellations received prior to that date.

Questions?
If you have any questions about the 2011 Annual Meeting, or need assistance, please call the NCOGS office at (919) 833-3836, or inquire by e-mail at nlowe@ncmedsoc.org.
Welcome Reception
A welcome reception will be held Friday evening from 5:30pm until 7:00pm. Come renew acquaintances and meet new colleagues while visiting with exhibitors.

Optional Recreational Activities
As is the tradition, arrangements have been made for golf and tennis on Saturday afternoon. Golf will be at the Grove Park Inn Course. The fee is $160 including green fee, cart fee, boxed lunch, beverage, and prizes.

Spouse/Guest/Children’s Breakfast
On Saturday morning, a continental breakfast will be offered for spouses, guests and children of all meeting attendees. There is no fee for this event.

A round robin format tennis outing has been arranged at the Grove Park Inn Sports Complex. The fee is $25 including beverages; prizes will be awarded.

Awards Banquet (cocktail attire)
Highlighting the weekend will be the Saturday evening banquet, which promises to be an enjoyable event with special recognitions. Live musical entertainment during and after dinner will be provided by the Russ Wilson Swingtet, a talented jazz ensemble. Fees for this event are noted on the registration form.

Attention Residents!!
Residents Luncheon/Job Fair
Back by popular demand, an informative lunch program for residents is planned for Saturday immediately following the scientific session. Career opportunities in North Carolina will be highlighted.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDS
The North Carolina Obstetrical and Gynecological Society is pleased to recognize two 2011 Distinguished Service Award recipients during the banquet on Saturday evening. William “Bill” Nebel, MD, FACOG, of Chapel Hill and Rufus “Pinkney” Rankin, Jr., MD, FACOG, of Charlotte will be honored for their years of dedicated service to women’s health.

Dr. Nebel completed his undergraduate degree at UNC Chapel Hill, did a straight medical internship at Duke, then completed his residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology at UNC, where he was chief resident and instructor. Afterwards he served in the US Naval Reserves as Chief of Gynecologic Oncology at the US Naval Hospital in San Diego. He taught at both Duke and UNC, and is currently a Clinical Professor at UNC. He also began a private practice, where he continues as Principal Investigator for Clinical Trials. He is a Fellow of ACOG and Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology. In 2007 he was named Distinguished Alumnus of the UNC School of Medicine.

Dr. Rankin served in the US Navy from 1944-46, then completed his undergraduate degree at UNC Chapel Hill. He obtained his MD from the University of Pennsylvania. He served as President of Medical Staff at Presbyterian Hospital, and was Associate Chair and Director of Residency Training at Carolinas Medical Center. Dr. Rankin is a Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, a Fellow of ACOG, and served as ACOG Section Chair and President of the NCOGS.

PRESIDENTIAL SPEAKER
The North Carolina Obstetrical and Gynecological Society is pleased to present its 2011 Presidential Speaker, Frank Miller, MD, FACOG, Professor, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, University of Kentucky College of Medicine. Dr. Miller is Board Certified in both Obstetrics and Gynecology and Maternal-Fetal Medicine. He is Diplomate, American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, where he has served as a Board Examiner, Maternal-Fetal Medicine. He has served in many capacities with ACOG, including serving as President in 1999, chairing the Nominating Committee and Committee on Honors and Recognitions, and serving on the Grievance Committee, Compensation Committee, and Appeals Committee. Dr. Miller also served as President of the Society for Maternal-Fetal Medicine and President of the Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics. Dr. Miller will present “Neonatal Encephalopathy and Cerebral Palsy, Ten Years Later” on Saturday morning, April 16.
