NC Obstetrical & Gynecological Society

This educational activity is designed for practicing and academic obstetric and gynecological physicians, residents, mid-level providers and medical students. It will address common conditions and concerns related to women's health care.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational activity participants should be able to:

- Provide best practice antepartum care, with appropriate length of stay.
- Increase access to the most effective family planning services.
- Increase access to safe office based procedures.

ACCME Accreditation

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.0 AMA PRA Category 1 CreditsTM. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

College Cognate Credits (s)

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 12.0 Category 1 College Cognate Credits. The College has a reciprocity agreement with the AMA that allows AMA PRA Category 1 CreditsTM to be equivalent to College Cognate Credits.

Meeting Overview

Disclosure of Faculty and Industry Relationships

In accordance with College policy, all faculty and planning committee members have signed a conflict of interest statement in which they have disclosed any significant financial interests or other relationships with industry relative to topics they will disclose at this program. At the beginning of the program, faculty members are required to disclose any such information to participants. Such disclosure allows you to evaluate better the objectivity of the information presented in lectures. Please report on your evaluation form any undisclosed conflict of interest you perceive.

Americans With Disabilities Act

The NCOGS is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this conference, please call Nancy Lowe at (919) 833-3836 no later than 10 business days before the date of the activity.

Resident/Fellow Activities

As is the tradition, resident paper presentations are scheduled for Saturday morning. Back by popular demand, a special lunch program for residents and fellows will take place following Saturday's scientific session. This year's topic is Contracting and Employment. There is no fee for this luncheon, but pre-registration is required.

Kiawah Island Golf Resort

NC Obstetrical & Gynecological Society

Meeting Features

On Friday, a welcome reception in the exhibit hall will be held featuring products and services of interest to practicing obstetricians and gynecologists. Daily breaks and the Saturday and Sunday continental breakfasts will also be in the exhibit hall. A special breakfast for spouses and guests will be offered Saturday morning; pre-registration is required. The business meeting will also take place Saturday morning. Saturday afternoon is free; golf and tennis outings are planned. Saturday night's dinner will be a family-friendly event, with entertainment by a band of your peers, including NCOGS Secretary-Treasurer Keith Nelson, MD. These social events will provide an opportunity to renew friendships and meet new colleagues. The attire for the meeting and Saturday dinner is business or resort casual.

Registration

Register before March 25 to get the early-bird rate! All fees include the continental breakfasts, breaks, and the Friday evening reception. Fees for recreational activities and the Saturday dinner are noted on the registration form. Pre-registration is required for all events. Please note that refunds of registration fees will not be made after April 10. Refunds, less $25, will be made for cancellations received prior to that date. Register securely online at www.123signup.com/event?id=ysqqd, or complete the registration form in this brochure and return it by fax or mail prior to April 14.

Kiawah Island Golf Resort

Meeting Overview

Location and Accommodations

The 2015 Annual Meeting will be held at the family-friendly Kiawah Island Golf Resort on Kiawah Island, South Carolina. Located just 21 miles from historic Charleston, Kiawah's ten-mile-long barrier island environment provides the ideal combination of climate, history, nature, and beach. The resort boasts several restaurants to fit all tastes, bicycle and kayak rentals, a nature center with tours and excursions, five golf courses, hard and clay tennis courts, and shops, as well a world-class spa located in The Sanctuary. The NCOGS has reserved accommodations in the East Beach villas, each of which include full kitchens, living rooms and screened porches. Rates for scenic view villas are $205 (one bedroom), $225 (two bedrooms) or $265 (three bedrooms), plus 9% resort fee and 12.5% taxes, per night. The resort fee covers on-demand, on-island transportation, and access to the villa fitness room and two villa resort pools. To reserve your accommodations, please call (800) 654-2924. The cut-off date to make reservations is March 17. Don't delay!
