This continuing medical education activity is jointly provided by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.
TARGET AUDIENCE AND PURPOSE
The North Carolina Obstetrical and Gynecological Society & NC Section of ACOG is pleased to announce its 2017 Annual Meeting, to be held at the newly-renovated Charlotte Marriott City Center in Charlotte, NC. The target audience for this meeting includes obstetricians and gynecologists in private practice and in academic medicine, residents in training, physician assistants, and mid-level providers. This educational activity will update attendees on the latest medical knowledge available from medical literature, clinical experience and research, to keep practitioners on the forefront of new discoveries and their application to the practice of obstetrics and gynecology for the benefit of their patients.

OBJECTIVES
• Describe who should be tested for Zika infection and discuss which tests should be used.
• Identify women at risk for postpartum hemorrhage and develop standardized team-based methods for controlling postpartum hemorrhage.
• Describe ways to counsel women with PCOS on weight loss, activity and medication options.
• Discuss counseling regarding and placement of postpartum LARCs.
• Describe how Medicaid policies are developed.

ACCME ACCREDITATION
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 12 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

College Cognate Credit(s)
The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists designates this live activity for a maximum of 12 Category 1 College Cognate Credits. The College has a reciprocity agreement with the AMA that allows AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ to be equivalent to College Cognate Credits.

DISCLOSURE OF FACULTY AND INDUSTRY RELATIONSHIPS
In accordance with College policy, all faculty and planning committee members have signed a conflict of interest statement in which they have disclosed any significant financial interests of other relationships with industry relative to topics they will discuss at this program. At the beginning of the program, faculty members are required to disclose any such information to participants. Such disclosure allows you to evaluate better the objectivity of the information presentation in the lectures. Please report on your evaluation form any undisclosed conflict of interest you perceive.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT
The NCOGS is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this program, please call Nancy Lowe at the NCOGS at (919) 833-3836 no later than 10 business days before the date of the activity.
MEETING FEATURES

Friday afternoon features the Presidential Address by Laurence Shields, MD on the Maternal Early Warning System, along with information on the Postpartum Hemorrhage Project in North Carolina and an important legislative update and outlook on the 2017 General Assembly. Saturday features an ACOG update on the Future of Women’s Health by Barbara Levy, MD, along with presentations from the state’s residency programs. Also on Saturday, residents and students are invited to a free lunch forum on Promoting Patient Safety and Quality of Care in Residency Training. On Sunday, a special session on Opioid Prescribing will be offered to help meet the new CME requirement. The weekend includes a welcome reception and daily breaks in a networking hub presenting products and services to help the ob/gyn practice. On Saturday evening, bring your family to the optional reception and dinner, featuring musical entertainment. Attire for all functions is business casual, except for the Saturday dinner, for which cocktail attire is suggested.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

On Saturday evening, the NC Obstetrical and Gynecological Society will present its Distinguished Service Award to Joseph McDonald “Mac” Ernest, III, MD. Dr. Ernest chaired the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Carolinas Medical Center until his retirement in 2014. He also served as Professor Emeritus of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and Associate Dean for Student Services at Wake Forest School of Medicine. Dr. Ernest served as President of the NC Obstetrical and Gynecological Society in 1997 and as President of the Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics in 2005-06.
