Process

Step 1: Candidates are nominated or may nominate themselves for a leadership position on the NCMS Board of Directors, NC American Medical Association Delegation or the NCMS Nominating and Leadership Development Committee (click here to view Nomination Form).

Step 2: Once a candidate submits their nomination form, they will receive a confirmation and be made aware of any follow-up needed.

Step 3: Upon careful review of submitted materials, the Nominating and Leadership Development Committee will select candidates to be interviewed. Interviews will take place via videoconference on May 22, 2021.

Step 4: Following candidate interviews, the Nominating and Leadership Development Committee will select a slate of candidates to be approved by the NCMS Board of Directors that will then be brought before the NCMS membership for a vote. Voting for the elected positions will begin October 1, 2021 and end October 15, 2021. Election results will be announced at the NCMS Annual Business Meeting on October 16, 2021.

All nominations and any information collected as part of the nominating process is strictly confidential.
